VICE PRESIDENT AND MRS. FAIRBANKS HONOR GUESTS.

Large Dinner at Italian Embassy.

Other Events—Personal Notes.

The Italian ambassador and Baroness Mayor des Planches gave a dinner last night in honor of the Vice President and Mrs. Fairbanks. Invited to meet them were Senator and Mrs. Elkins, Senator and Mrs. Burrows, Senator and Mrs. Deane, the Swiss minister, Dr. Vogel, the Turkish minister, the Peruvian minister, and Senator DePauw, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Legare, Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, Mrs. George Lodge, the French naval attaché and Mme. de Blampre, Miss Norris, Baron Terson of San Martino and Mr. Attolico.

Mrs. Victor H. Olmsted, wife of the stationer, and daughter of Agriculture, who is now in Cuba as director of the census, has returned from Havana after a visit of five months in the Cuban capital. Mrs. Olmsted and her daughter, Miss Myrtle, are entertaining Mrs. Annie Teller, her son, Voltaire Teller, and Mrs. Roger Mason, wife of Lieut. Mason of the Army Corps, U.S.A., stationed in Cuba at their country residence, Vincetrot, in Alexandria county, Va. Mrs. Olmsted and her daughter are most enthusiastic about the city of Havana and were most impressed with the Moorishness of the ancient city. During their stay in Cuba they were the guests of honor at a number of functions and thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

Friends of Mr. Charles W. Lippold gathered at his home, 431 Park road, last evening and enjoyed progressive five hundred prizes being won by Miss Mary Ruppert, Mr. Lippold and Mr. H. Allen. A mandarin club, of which the host is a member, rendered several selections. Those present were Mrs. Saum and Misses Mary Ruppert, Helen Royce, M. Johnston and K. Kane, and Messrs. Saum, Ellsworth Quinter, Howard Allen, John Bonnell, W. Diers, Thomas C. Hess and Charles W. Lippold. A buffet supper was served.

Mrs. Daniel Manning of Albany, who spent a part of the winter here, has returned for a month's stay.

Miss Mary Underhill Wood was married at noon yesterday in New York city to Mr. Merrill Edward Gates, Jr., the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Dr. Lambert D. Huntington in the presence of only near relatives and a few intimate friends.

The bride, who is a grandniece of the late John Hopkins of Baltimore, the founder and benefactor of Johns Hopkins University of that city, was given away by her oldest brother, Mr. William Congdon Wood.

Miss Lois Homans, daughter of Mrs. Edward C. Homans of New York city, was the maid of honor and only attendant.

Mr. Gates, whose father, Dr. Merrill E. Gates of Washington, D.C., was formerly president of Rutgers and Amherst colleges, had his brother, Rev. William Bishop Gates of this city, for his best man. There were no ushers.

Owing to the recent death of the bride's father, William H. S. Wood, who was president of the Bowery Savings Bank and head of the publishing firm of William Wood & Co., there was no wedding reception.

On their return from their honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Gates will make their home at 30 East 25th street, New York.

Mrs. Timmons, daughter of the Vice President, has returned after a short visit to friends in New York.

The marriage of Miss Marie S. Eddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tins Eddy of New York city, and Lieut. Louis Kadat Hussars, Austro-Hungarian army, will take place at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon at the home of the bride on East 5th street, New York city. Mr. Kadat, St. Patrick's Cathedral will officiate at the ceremony, which will be very quietly solemnized.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father, Titus E. Eddy. She will have no attendants. Baron Hoenning O'Carroll, Austro-Hungarian consul in New York city, will be Lieut. Kadat's best man. There will be no ushers.

Lieut. Kadat and his bride will probably live in Budapest.

Miss Williams and Mr. Francis Bennett Poe, who are to be married Saturday, are being entertained cordially by their friends. Mrs. Pullman will give a dinner tonight at the Arlington, and Miss Eleanor Ridgely, who is to be the maid of honor, will entertain similarly tomorrow night for them.

The engagement of Miss Maud Elliott and Mr. Francis W. Mallard is announced.

Mrs. Johnston and Miss Frances B. Johnston, 1222 V street, will be at home today.

Senator and Mrs. Burdett have issued invitations to all invited to Nebraska's new residence in Washington, their wives and husbands, to a reception to meet Mr. and Mrs. Raymond B. Morgan Saturday evening next at the home of Mrs. Morgan in Boston last Saturday.

Mrs. William A. Beach, Jr., of Syracuse, N.Y., is visiting in the capital.

Mrs. L. S. Anderson of 2019 Q street will be at home Thursday, April 9, from 3 to 6, for the last time this season.

Mrs. Humphrey ward, who has been staying in Philadelphia, will be in the city today for New York, where she spoke before the Brooklyn Institute last night. She and her daughter will come here today to stay over Sunday at the British embassy, Monday or Tuesday, next week Mrs. Ward will go to Canada, where she will make a tour of the provinces and the private car of the governor general, Lord Grey.

The naval attaché of the German embassy and Mme. Hebbinghaus gave a dinner last evening when their guests were Rear Admiral and Mrs. Mason, Capt. and Mrs. Kimball, Dr. and Mrs. Pettus, Mrs. Vogelsang, Miss Harlan, the naval attaché of the Japanese embassy, Commander Taniguchi and Prof. Swisher.

Mrs. S. C. Neale gave a luncheon yesterday in honor of Mrs. Swanson, wife of the governor of Virginia, who returned to Richmond today after a delightful stay with Mrs. Arthur Wallace Dunn.

Former Vice President and Mrs. Morton and Miss Mary Morton are sailing this week for Europe. Mr. and Mrs. William Corcoran Smith have been spending a few days in New York with them and will shortly go to their Virginia place for the spring season.
